OBITUARIES

Edward P. Weir

Edward P. Weir, 43, Passport Examiner in the New York Passport Agency, died in New York City on February 1.

Mr. Weir joined the Passport Agency on January 6.

His immediate survivors include his mother, Mrs. Genevieve Weir, of 150 Chatham Street, New Haven, Conn., and a sister, Mrs. John Roche, of 156 Chatham Street, also New Haven.

Dr. Olive Reddick

Dr. Olive Reddick, who retired in 1965 as Executive Director of the United States Educational Foundation in India, died January 27 at the home of a niece in Houston, Texas. She had devoted a large part of nearly 50 years to education in India, beginning in 1921 as a teacher there, and to educational exchange.

Her tenure with the U.S. Educational Foundation began in 1951. Since her retirement from the foundation she had been active as a consultant to the American Studies Research Center, at Osmania University, Hyderabad.

The family suggested that expressions of sympathy may be in the form of contributions to the American Studies Research Center, c/o Dr. William Mulder, 1444 Circle Way, Salt Lake City, Utah 84103.

Walter Spencer Robertson

Walter Spencer Robertson, 76, who served as Assistant Secretary for Far Eastern Affairs from 1953 to 1959, died in a Richmond, Va., hospital on January 18.

Mr. Robertson was Chief of the U.S. Lend Lease Mission to Australia during 1943-44. He later held such assignments as Economic Adviser to the State Department, 1945; Minister, Counselor of Economic Affairs, and Chargé d'Affaires at the U.S. Embassy in Chunking, China, 1945-46; and American Commissioner to the Executive Headquarters (Marshall Truce Commission) in Peiping, 1946.

He returned to private life in 1946 but in 1953 President Eisenhower chose him as Assistant Secretary for Far Eastern Affairs.

Mr. Robertson leaves his wife, the former Mary Dade Taylor; two sons, Walter, Jr., and Jacquelin T., and a daughter, Mrs. Herbert A. Claiborne, Jr.; and a sister, Mrs. Joseph G. Fiveash.

Mrs. Lester A. Washburn

Mrs. Lester A. Washburn, 70, a former employee of the Passport Office, died at her home, Deer Lake Farm, in Madison, Va., on December 22.

Mrs. Washburn worked in the Passport Office for 29 years, retiring in 1957.

She leaves her husband; a son, Lester A., Jr.; a daughter, Mrs. Hobson Chinnis, of Monticello, N.Y.; and two sisters, Mrs. John Anderson, of Tupelo, Miss., and Mrs. Craig Morton, of Dayton, Ohio.

KAMPALA—During a recent visit to Uganda, Astronaut Russell Schweikart, right, met with Beauveau B. Nalle, left, U.S. Chargé d'Affaires, a.i., and F. K. Onama, the Uganda Minister of Defense. Mr. Onama had visited the Kennedy Space Center in Florida while on a U.S. Leader Grant tour of the U.S.
